CONTRACT FOR 1915 POSTERS AWARDED TODAY

Carnival Directors Authorize Promotion Committee to Proceed With Plans

The directors of the Mid-Pacific Carnival have authorized the Promotion Committee to proceed with the original plans for advertising the 1915 celebration and, at a meeting of the committee at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, bids for printing the poster, mailing cards, postal cards and stickers will be opened and the contract awarded. Thus far, the only bidders are the Honolulu Star-Bulletin and the Pacific Commercial Advertiser.

The letter of authorization sent by the directors for Emil A. Berndt, chairman of the Promotion Committee, follows:

"In reply to yours of August 8, referring to our recent communication with reference to your withholding action in getting out the 1915 carnival posters, we would say that we deem it advisable that you proceed to have this work done and make your preparations for distributing in such a manner as you may think best.

"While we regret the misunderstandings which were incident to our action in connection with the general carnival program, we think that matters have been so fully explained and conditions have so far changed as to make it unnecessary for us to permit further delay, and we will ask that you proceed under our original authorization in getting out the poster.

"Trusting this meets with your views on the matter, and assuring you of our hearty cooperation in your promotion work, we beg to remain,

"Yours very truly,

"E. H. PARIS, Pres.,

"Mid-Pacific Carnival, Ltd."

The opening of the bids and the awarding of the contract will be the only new business which will come before the meeting of the promotionists. D. M. Linnard, hotel manager of Pasadena, Calif., who has been visiting in Honolulu for some time, will address the members of the committee on the impressions of Honolulu which he has gained from a promotion standpoint.

James W. Wadsworth of Geneseo, N. Y., announced his candidacy for the United States senate on the Republican ticket.

LIQUOR BOARD GIVEN 'INSIDE' ON WAIKIKI INN

"Executive" Session is Held to Determine Disposition of Lifting the Taboo

Because the attorney representing the creditors of the Waikiki Inn is absent from the city and the formal application has not yet been presented, the board of liquor license commissioners yesterday afternoon took no action on the matter of granting after-hour privileges to that institution. An attorney who claims to represent independent creditors to whom the Waikiki Inn is indebted to a total of about $3000, appeared before the commission with a demand that they make a thorough investigation of its present conduct and affairs before granting any after-hour rights. He declared that despite the fact that John T. Scully, the former manager, is supposed to be disconnected with the inn, his chits are still accepted and cashed there, and intimated that other irregularities are practiced.

Inasmuch as the application for extended privileges had not been placed before the board formally, no cognizance of the independent creditors' demand was taken at the time.

The board then went into a lengthy executive session, presumably to discuss the Waikiki Inn affairs, though the nature of the business undertaken was not given out by the members. At the close of the secret session the board opened its doors and resumed its public sitting, at which the transfer of license was granted the Progress saloon. The saloon is to be moved from its present location at King and Maunakea streets to 1022-1024 Smith street.

Edward Cluney, the chauffeur who was placed on the saloon's tabu list by Inspector Fennell about a year ago, following an accident in which liquor is said to have figured, applied for and received release from the prohibition.

The members were all present with Fred D. Lowrey in the chair. After the reading and approval of the minutes of the several sessions, the first item of business was an appeal to the board by Attorney Wm. T. Rawlins, in person, in behalf of Edward Cluney, a friend of his whose name had been on the tabu list for a year. Since his last conviction for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, Mr. Rawlins stated that his friend was a public chauffeur and this official restriction upon him was not only a stigma on his character but a hindrance to his business. He desired to have his name removed so as to allow him the freedom of the saloons. The chairman stated that the board would consider the request in executive session. There being nothing further on the docket, the chairman asked Mr. Fennell, the license inspector, to go and phone for some representatives of the new board of control of the Waikiki Inn. He did so and after considerable delay Senator Wirtz, manager of the tobacco and liquor department of Hackfeld & Co., appeared and stated that inasmuch as the attorney for the new company, Robt. Breckons, had departed to Maui, the necessary papers could not be filed with the board until his return and he, therefore, desired to hold back the application for special privileges until the next meeting of the board. At this juncture Attorney Harry T. Mills, who was present with several others, rose to his feet and stated that the affairs of the Waikiki Inn were far from being in any sort of a settled condition. In fact, they were very much unsettled, he said. "I am myself a creditor and I represent other creditors and we do not intend to have Hackfeld and Peacock and the brewery, these big fish, swallow the little fellows." The board, he said, "may not know it, but it is nevertheless true that Jack Scully is still the manager de facto, de jure, and every other 'let' of the Waikiki Inn. Mrs. Scully is a stockholder. Jack does not intend to quit. No, no. It is understood," said Attorney Mills, "that the new management has an agent down at the Inn whom they are paying $10 a day to watch Scully and it is well known that disorderly flatcufts are frequently taking place. It is disreputable. The board should know the true condition of affairs, so should the public."

The chairman of the board at this point proceeded to call Mr. Mills to order inasmuch as there was no formal application for special privileges before the board.

PROF. BRYAN HOME TO MAKE RUN FOR SENATE

Has Brace of Planks for Campaign, Namely — "Free Port" and "Tax Reform"

Prof. Wm. A. Bryan of the College of Hawaii is out for the senate and will make a whirlwind campaign for nomination at the primaries, having returned from a vacation on Molokai at an earlier date than he had intended in order to take up the fight for nomination.

Prof. Bryan will run as a Democrat but draws attention to the fact that one of the planks in his platform—there being two upon which he will make his fight—is not in the Democratic platform but has been adopted by the Progressives. This plank is "tax reform."

"Tax reform," said Prof. Bryan this morning, "is fundamentally a Democratic proposition. It has been adopted by the Progressives as a progressive idea, which it is. I am in favor of tax reform to the point of the single tax and on this plank, together with the 'free port' issue, I will rest my candidacy."

Relative to the "free port" idea it might be stated that Prof. Bryan is the "father" of the idea, having fought diligently for its application for many years.

"GETS IT" FOR CORNS SURE AS SUNRISE

New Plan. Corns Shriveled, Vanish. Until "GETS-IT" was born nobody was ever sure of getting rid of a corn. Corn treatments nearly all contained the same ingredients, only some were liquid, some plasters, some "wrappers" and some in salve form. Now comes "GETS-IT" with a newly discovered formula—the corn cure on a principle and a simple plan that never fails. This is why "GETS-IT" has grown in three years to be the biggest-selling corn cure the world has ever known.

There's no more need of fussing with corns, no more digging or cutting. There's nothing to press down on the corn, nothing to inflame the flesh, to "pull" the corn or cause pain. Put two drops of "GETS-IT" on in two seconds. That's all. For any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

"GETS-IT" is sold in Honolulu by Benson, Smith & Co., Fort and Hotel sts., and Hollister Drug Co.—advertisement.
